As an applicant for employment with the Diocese of Spokane, I understand that:

- ♦ Misrepresenting or falsifying information or significant omissions will invalidate my application or result in discipline up to and including dismissal from employment if discovered at a later date.
- ♦ My employment is contingent upon the results of a criminal background check. The results may disqualify me or end my employment.
- ♦ If my application for employment is accepted, the effective date of my employment will be the time I actually begin to work.
- ♦ If I am employed, I agree to comply with and be bound by the Catholic Diocese of Spokane Code of Conduct and Lay Employee Handbook.
- ♦ The employment relationship between me and the Catholic Diocese of Spokane is entirely voluntary. This means that my employment is not guaranteed for any term, and my employment may be ended by me or the Diocese of Spokane for any reason. No Catholic Diocese of Spokane official is authorized to make a verbal commitment or promise of continued employment.
- ♦ All information (including information on any accompanying resume) is subject to verification.
- ♦ I authorize and consent to my current and prior employers, educational institutions, and persons or organizations named in this application (or accompanying resume) to release any information to the Diocese of Spokane that may be required to make an employment decision. Further, I hereby release from liability and hold harmless all persons and corporations supplying this information to the Diocese of Spokane and/or its agents.
- ♦ A photocopy of this authorization is as effective as the original.
